

LONG ISLAND GO GREEN ENVIRONMENTAL & ENERGY CONFERENCE

Learn About Green Services Today for the Industrial & Commercial Sectors

HELPING INDUSTRIES
GO GREEN

October 23, 2009

7:30am - 4:00pm Islandia Marriott

ATTENDEE FEE (Full Day): $125 per person

EXECUTIVE BREAKFAST * BREAKOUT SEMINARS * EXECUTIVE LUNCH * EXHIBITS

DISCUSSIONS WILL INCLUDE:

Building a Greener Business * Green Buildings (New and Retrofits)
Energy Efficiency Solutions and Programs * Renewable Energy Solutions and Programs
Solar, Geothermal, BioFuels and Wind * GreenIT, Conservation and Sustainability

Executive Breakfast Program

Kick-Off Speaker, Congressman Steve Israel

(confirmed but subject to Congressional Calendar)

Panel Presentation and Discussion

“Measuring and Reducing the Carbon Footprint in the Hauppauge Industrial Park Here, Now and in the Future”

Moderator - Gordian Raacke, Director - Renewable Energy Long Island Panelists - Dorian Dale, Energy Director - Town of Babylon, John McNally, Environment Program Officer - Rauch Foundation, David Winchester, CleanTech Rocks, 2nd VP, HIA Board of Directors & Chair, Business of CleanTech, Program Committee, Tricia Russell, Senior Legislative Assistant, Congressman Steve Israel (NY-02)

Executive Luncheon Program

“Clean Technology, What Now?”

Kick-Off Speaker, Robert Catell, Co-Chair, Advanced Energy Center

Moderator - Patrick Foye, Partner - Rivkin Radler LLP

Panelists - Steve Bellone, Supervisor - Town of Babylon, Russell Albanese – President, Albanese Organization Inc. Dr. Randolph Manning, Dean of Business and Technology, Suffolk County Community College, Gerry Petrella, Long Island Regional Director, Senator Chuck Schumer

Sponsors To Date

Registration & Networking begin at 7:30am. To register please call Kelly Fahrbach at 631-543-5355 mail: kfahrbach@hia-li.org or go to www.hia-li.org