

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Hauppauge, NY – June 20, 2011 – Bob Didier of Irwin Contracting Inc. is named President of the NYC/LI Chapter of NARI (National Association of the Remodeling Industry)

Irwin Contracting is proud to announce that our very own Bob Didier has been named President of NARI's NYC/LI Chapter. The National Association of the Remodeling Industry brings together people who work in and with the Remodeling Industry. Bob has been involved with NARI for ten years, volunteering his time and expertise. Various positions held include Chairman of the Awards Committee, and Third, Second, and First Vice President. His dedication is greatly appreciated by the members and officers of the organization.

Bob Didier accepted this honor at the NARI Awards Dinner on June 16, 2011 at the Melville Marriott, among new members and veteran volunteers. "When I attended my first NARI dinner meeting ten years ago, I never thought I would become President," Didier said as he accepted his new position.

Didier reminded members that the benefits of NARI come from being involved: attend networking events to build relationships with peers and clients; take advantage of educational seminars; gain exposure through advertising; receive recognition by entering the NARI Contractor of the Year awards; find rewards in participating in community service projects.

"The opportunities to advance your business, your employees, and yourself through NARI are endless. Taking part in your association can have a powerful effect on your business," according to Didier, who brings energy and enthusiasm to the chapter as President. He noted with pride, that the NYC/LI Chapter is the third largest in the United States.
