East End Law Firm Names Of Counsel Attorney

RIVERHEAD, NY – Twomey, Latham, Shea, Kelley, Dubin & Quartararo is pleased to announce that John Claude Bahrenburg has become Of Counsel to the Riverhead-based law firm.

John Claude Bahrenburg

Mr. Bahrenburg has had a general practice with an emphasis in alternative dispute resolution (ADR). A skilled mediator, he has served privately and as a court-appointed mediator and trial referee in the State Courts of Connecticut. Recently returned to New York practice, he has extensive experience as corporate counsel, primarily in not-for-profit and regulatory environments. He has served as an education lawyer, both as school district and parent/child counsel. He has also practiced as labor and employment counsel before administrative tribunals and before the federal and state courts of New York, Connecticut and Massachusetts. He has served a number of employers as chief negotiator in the facilitation of their collective bargaining agreements.

Mr. Bahrenburg received his Bachelor's Degree from the University of Hartford in 1969 and his Master's in Secondary Education from Hofstra University in 1970. He is ABD at New York University, where he earned his SDS and SDA New York State Department of Education certifications. He earned a Juris Doctorate from Touro Law School in 1982, where he was recognized as the outstanding graduate and served as Editor-in-Chief of the Law Review.

Mr. Bahrenburg is licensed to practice law in the state courts of New York and Connecticut, in the Federal District Court of Connecticut, and in the Eastern and Southern District Courts of New York.
