VAI's S2K Warehouse Management Software Wins Network Products Guide Reader Trust Award for Best in Applications

Ronkonkoma, N.Y. -- July 7, 2010 -- VAI (Vormittag Associates, Inc.) (www.vai.net) today announced that Network Products Guide, the industry's leading information technology research and advisory guide, has named S2K Warehouse Management Software (WMS), a winner of the 2010 Best Products and Services Award. This respected annual award honors products and services that represent the rapidly changing needs and interests of technology end-users worldwide. As part of the tech-industry's leading global awards program, this year's Best Products and Services were nominated from all over the world. VAI, an IBM Premier Business Partner, offers ERP solutions for the distribution, manufacturing, retail and service industries, designed to navigate today's global marketplace.

S2K WMS enhances performance by supplying companies with technology to improve overall warehouse efficiency and streamline services. This innovative software simplifies inventory processing through automation, ensuring integrated operations at all levels of warehouse management—enabling companies to cut costs while improving productivity.

"Increased end-user awareness and ongoing advances in technology are helping shape better products and services," said Rake Narang, editor-in-chief, Network Products Guide. "S2K WMS is bringing improvements in inventory control and order management procedures, helping companies to save time and reduce errors."

"The Network Products Guide Reader Trust awards go to the best technology products each year, and we are pleased that S2K WMS has garnered this recognition," commented Bob Vormittag, CEO, VAI. "VAI is committed to meeting and exceeding our customer's expectations by providing them with the best products and services available."
