

Dear HIA-LI Member,

The Governor's Office has released the guidelines and business safety templates for industries allowed to reopen in phase three. To see complete phase three guidelines and an updated list of industries, click here.

Eligible businesses must complete a safety plan to be kept on premise; a suggested template can be found here.

The following industry-specific guidelines have been issued for businesses eligible for phase three reopening:

- Food services
- Personal care

Additionally, the Federal Reserve Board announced revisions to the Main Street Lending Program which compliments the SBA's PPP program. This will make it possible for more small and midsize businesses to receive financial support when the program opens, including lowering the minimum loan from $500,000 to $250,000.
